

University of Southern Maine
USM Digital Commons

Independent, The, 1949-1950

Student Newspapers

12-3-1949

The Independent, 12/03/1949

Portland Junior College

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.usm.maine.edu/independent>

Part of the Creative Writing Commons

Recommended Citation

Portland Junior College, "The Independent, 12/03/1949" (1949). Independent, The, 1949-1950. 2.
<https://digitalcommons.usm.maine.edu/independent/2>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Student Newspapers at USM Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Independent, The, 1949-1950 by an authorized administrator of USM Digital Commons. For more information, please contact jessica.c.hovey@maine.edu.

THE INDEPENDENT

Vol. 1 No. 1.

December 2, 1949

Love Rides The Rails Tonight At 8

EDITORIAL

By George A. Linseott, Jr.

You students may wonder just why a new publication has appeared here on the PJC campus. There are a good many reasons why the INDEPENDENT has appeared. For one fact the PJC News does not appear often enough and we need better coverage of the news. In later issues we shall give more reasons.

We would like all you good readers to forgive us for our appearance in this our first issue for Ye Ed is new at this work of cutting stencils and typing. We promise that our next issue will be much neater.

We would welcome all the letters to the editor that we receive. We will print all such letters with one stipulation, that they be signed. Any such letters can be left in the mail boxes of any of the staff.

Our staff includes George Linseott editor, two assistant editors, Paul Nichols, and Jerome Connor, a sports editor who is William and several reporters who will be announcees later.

Recently the PJC News ran an editorial demanding a football team here on the campus. The INDEPENDENT does not agree with that view. We do not think that a football team is more important than a science lab and we shall never think so. The news says that it is a "Mirror of Student Minds" but it is not. The students were not polled on the subject. It is only one man's opinion, that of the editor. We are not saying that the esteemed editor's opinion is no good, only that the News is not a "Mirror of Student Minds."

We would like to hear what you have to say on the preceding matter, so send your letters today.

Tonight is the night!

At last we will have a chance to see "Love Rides the Rails" or "Will The Mail Train-Run Tonight?"

The combined Dramatic Clubs of PJC and WJC have worked long and hard to make the play a success.

The cast includes Dick Chandler as the crafty villain, a wonderful choice, Ed Pulsifer as the bold and handsome hero, and Miss Ruth Reeves of WJC for the part of the sweet, lovely maiden, for the leading roles.

Other students from PJC who have the supporting roles are Alan Thilman, Charles L. Ponce, Lawrence Stanchfield, Herbert Andrews and Francis Langlois.

From WJC we have Mary Lou Marks, Pat Tibbetts, Faith LaFleur, each of whom appeared in last year's play and we also have a newcomer in Nancy Jackson who seems to have a good future ahead of her.

George Dunn and the PJC Glee Club will offer their talented voices for the background of music.

Arnie Kuvent is the very able director and Phil Rockleau is assisting Kuvent. Old Faithful Ed Madden is in charge of the production and Horbie Ring is an able business manager.

Mr. French and Mr. Goff of the PJC faculty have given much time and energy toward making this play a success.

This year the play is being presented on two nights, December 2 and 3. There are still too many tickets which have not been sold for both performances, so let's go students---- support your school and Dramatic Club!